

2017 Fair Dedication: Paul Hollier

Director in charge of outside space. Paul graduated from Skaneateles High School. Graduated Johnson City NY Baptist Bible Seminary with a Bachelor of Religious Education, and became ordained at the First Baptist Church. He became a certified meat cutter from the Toledo Ohio School. Paul worked for the Village of Angelica as a clerk/treasurer. He graduated from St. Bonaventure University with a master of Psychology and worked for BOCES as a teacher for "Project Know" retiring after 20 years.

Paul married Electa Stone in 1962, celebrating their 55th anniversary this year. Paul and Ellie have two children and two granddaughters.

Paul's volunteered to help Elnora Jennings following Milton Jennings passing. In 2004 following Elnora's retirement, he became the director of the main hall. Upon Larry Zeliff's move out of the county, he also became the Director of the outside space. Paul is currently the director in charge of the outside space.