

2018 Allegany County Fair has been dedicated to:

George and Dawn Santangelo

They have been lifelong participants in the Allegany County Fair.

Dawn showed as a youth exhibitor by helping with relative's sheep and dairy cattle.

They have encouraged their own children and grandchildren, as well as other relatives, to participate in the youth shows at the Allegany County Fair.

They have exhibited their own beef cattle with the help of friends and family.

They have volunteered with the Cuba Gold Diggers 4-H club (Dawn is the current club leader), where numerous youth have participated in many aspects of showing and exhibiting projects and displays

George has volunteered as Swine Superintendent and Dawn had volunteered as the Open Dairy Superintendent

Actively contribute to the care and uptake of buildings around the fairgrounds for the past two decades.

They have been instrumental in the construction of several building projects around the fair. Most notably the construction of the Small Animal Livestock Barn between the Livestock show arena and the Livestock Barn.

George has been on the Fair Board as the Grounds, Maintenance, and Buildings Director since 2014. Both Dawn and George have been regular attendees for several years prior.
